CAMPBELLSVILLE, KENTUCKY - A RESOURCE PROFILE

Campbellsville, the county seat of Taylor County, is the home of Campbellsville College. The city is located 82 miles southwest of Lexington, Kentucky; 86 miles southeast of Louisville, Kentucky; 149 miles northeast of Nashville, Tennessee; and 160 miles southwest of Cincinnati, Ohio. In 1990, Campbellsville had a population of 9,592 persons.

Taylor County, with a land area of 269 square miles, is located in the Mississippian Plateaus area of south-central Kentucky. The county had a 1990 population of 21,146 persons.

The Economic Framework - The total number of Taylor County residents employed in 1992 averaged 10,944. Manufacturing firms in the county reported 5,156 employees; wholesale and retail trade provided 1,823 jobs; 888 people were employed in service occupations; state and local government accounted for 1,264 employees; and contract construction firms provided 234 jobs.

Labor Supply - There is a current estimated labor supply of 5,506 persons available for industrial jobs in the labor market area. In addition, from 1994 through 1998, 6,799 young persons in the area will become 18 years of age and potentially available for industrial jobs.

Transportation - Campbellsville is served by U.S. Highway 68 and Kentucky Route 55, both "AAA"-rated trucking highways. Kentucky Routes 70 and 210, "AA"-rated trucking highways, and Kentucky Route 208 also serve Campbellsville. Seventeen trucking firms provide service to Campbellsville. CSX Transportation provides the nearest rail service located at Munfordville, 38 miles west of Campbellsville. The Taylor County Airport, a local airport, is located one mile northeast of the city and has a 5,000-foot paved runway. The nearest scheduled commercial airline service is available at Blue Grass Airport near Lexington, 78 miles northeast; and at Standiford Field in Louisville, 82 miles northwest.

Power and Fuel - Electric power is provided to Campbellsville and a small portion of Taylor County by the Kentucky Utilities Company. Taylor County is also provided electric power by the Taylor County Rural Electric Cooperative Corporation. Campbellsville is provided natural gas service by the Western Kentucky Gas Company.

Education - Primary and secondary education in Campbellsville and Taylor County is provided by the Campbellsville Independent and Taylor County School Systems. Both school systems are accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools. Campbellsville College is a coeducational senior college of the liberal arts and sciences. The College confers associate and bachelor degrees. In addition, there are twelve other institutions of higher learning located within 90 miles of Campbellsville. The Green County Area Vocational Education Center in Greensburg, 11 miles southwest of Campbellsville; the Elizabethtown State Vocational-Technical School, 42 miles northwest; and the Somerset State Vocational-Technical School, 60 miles southeast, offer vocational training to area residents.

TRANSPORTATION

Highways

Major highways serving Campbellsville are U.S. Highway 68 and Kentucky Route 55, both "AAA"-rated trucking highways (80,000-pound gross load limit).

The Cumberland Parkway, a multi-lane east-west toll road, is accessible 20 miles south of Campbellsville via Kentucky Route 55.

An interchange of Interstate 65 is located 40 miles northwest, near Elizabethtown, via Kentucky Route 210 and 61. Access to the Western Kentucky Parkway, a multi-lane highway traversing western Kentucky, is also available 41 miles northwest.

The Blue Grass Parkway is accessible 43 miles north of Campbellsville, via Kentucky Route 55 and 555. The Blue Grass Parkway extends northeast from Elizabethtown to a point near Lexington.

Construction of a by-pass connecting Kentucky 289 to Kentucky 210, then extending the by-pass to connect with U.S. Highway 68 is in the planning stages.

LOCAL GOVERNMENT

Structure

Campbellsville is served by a mayor and twelve council members. The mayor serves a four-year term and the council members serve two-year terms. Taylor County is served by a county judge/executive and six magistrates. The county judge/executive and magistrates are elected to four-year terms.

Planning and Zoning

City agency - Campbellsville Planning Commission
Zoning enforced - Within corporate limits
Subdivision regulations enforced - Within city and one mile beyond corporate limits
Local codes enforced - Building and housing
Mandatory state codes enforced - Kentucky Plumbing Code, National Electric Code, Kentucky Boiler Regulations and Standards, Kentucky Building Code (modeled after BOCA code)

Local Fees and Licenses

The City of Campbellsville levies a business license fee which ranges from $20 to $375. In addition, a 10% municipal insurance premium tax on policies written within city limits is assessed and an annual $10 auto sticker fee is charged.

PROPERTY TAXES

The Kentucky Constitution requires the state to tax all classes of taxable property, and state statutes allow local jurisdictions to tax only a few classes. All locally taxed property is subject to county taxes and school district taxes (either a county school district or an independent school district). Property located inside of city limits may also be subject to city property taxes.

Special local taxing jurisdictions (fire protection districts, watershed districts, and sanitation districts) levy taxes within their operating areas (usually a small portion of community or county).

Property assessments in Kentucky are at 100% fair cash value. Accounts receivable are taxed at 85% of face value.

RECREATION

Local

Campbellsville has excellent recreational facilities, which include several parks. Miller Park is a 65-acre scenic park, which features baseball and softball fields, tennis courts, a basketball court, children's playground, horseshoe pits, croquet area, and a par 3 golf course. A stream meanders through the park and various picnic facilities are located near the stream. The facilities provide a 50 x 100 meter swimming pool, with a 25-meter off-set diving area, and a bathhouse. A model airplane flying field with runway is located at the park.

The City-County Park, just on the outskirts of the city limits, features baseball and softball fields, which are used for many high school games, state tournaments, independent league games, and church games. The baseball field is the home field for Campbellsville College. The recently developed Trace Creek Park contains two lighted ballfields and concessions.

The Taylor County Park, located at the Green River Reservoir, contains 486 acres. A sand beach, covered picnic area, marina, campsites, and boat launching ramps all make this park one of Central Kentucky's most outstanding attractions.

Green River Lake State Park, 3 miles south of Campbellsville, encompasses 1,300 acres surrounding an 8,200-acre lake. The park is open year-round and offers 96 campsites, a beach, marina, fishing, and picnic areas.

The restoration and relocation of the Jacob Hiestand Stone House, one of only twelve stone houses with Federal Style Architecture in Kentucky, was recently completed. The historic structure houses the Tourist Information Center for Campbellsville, Taylor County, and the Green River Area.

Taylor County Independent Appreciation Day Celebration on July 4, has an hour long parade, hot air balloon races, and fireworks display at dusk.

Other recreational facilities include a 20-lane bowling alley; an 18-hole golf course and swimming pool at the Campbellsville Country Club; and the City Lake, where fishing is excellent. Campbellsville College has a tennis court, indoor pool, and organized physical fitness programs for the entire family.
